

THE HARBINGER

December 2017

Our mission is to share the love of Christ with EVERYONE.

It is the greatest of all mistakes to do nothing because you can only do little – do what you can. — Sydney Smith

Una Familia is celebrating “Día de los Reyes” (Epiphany) on January 6, 2018. We need YOUR help in providing the gifts that the Kings (or Wise Men) will bring to the children. The “Kings” need to provide over 150 gift bags. Churches, Church groups or individuals are invited to give a financial contribution. One gift bag = $20. Please send gift contributions marked “Reyes” by December 15th to Una Familia, P. O. Box 317, Parksley, VA 23421.

May God bless you in your giving!

This year the Faith in Action Class is again collecting new and gently used coats for the Onley United Methodist Church Coat Closet. There is a box for your donations by the Social Hall entrance. Onley UMC will open its coat closet Dec. 9, Jan. 6 and Feb. 3 from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. The coat closet is open to anyone in need of a coat. Those who can't make it to the coat closet during scheduled hours can call the Onley UMC church office at 787-4155 or Jeannette Edwards at 787-1436.

The Faith in Action Class will collect a special "Warm Hands" offering during worship services on Dec. 4 and 11 to collect new gloves to distribute at the coat closet. For more information regarding helping the coat closet contact Amy Bull at we4bulls@verizon.net or call 787-7204.

Donations for the beautiful poinsettias which adorn our Sanctuary for the Christmas season in honor or memory of friends and loved ones need to be submitted to the church office by December 11th. Offerings will go to United Methodist Family Services.

In connection with Accomack County Social Services we have Angels for seniors and handicapped adults. Everyone remembers the children at Christmas, but our senior neighbors have needs at Christmas. Pick an angel off the tree located in the Assembly Room, and return unwrapped item to the church with the angel attached by December 10th (so we can deliver them in time for Christmas). If you have any questions, contact Vicki @ 787-3722. Thank you!

The Unsettling Song of the Savior's Birth
Mary Song or the Magnificat
Luke 1:46-55

And Mary^[a] said,

‘My soul magnifies the Lord,
⁴⁷ and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour,
⁴⁸ for he has looked with favour on the lowliness of his servant.
 Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed;
⁴⁹ for the Mighty One has done great things for me,
 and holy is his name.
⁵⁰ His mercy is for those who fear him
 from generation to generation.
⁵¹ He has shown strength with his arm;
 he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.
⁵² He has brought down the powerful from their thrones,
 and lifted up the lowly;
⁵³ he has filled the hungry with good things,
 and sent the rich away empty.
⁵⁴ He has helped his servant Israel,
 in remembrance of his mercy,
⁵⁵ according to the promise he made to our ancestors,
 to Abraham and to his descendants for ever.’

I can remember the snow globe. The tiny manger scene enclosed within a plastic globe filled with water. As a child I would take the globe and shake it. There were tiny white flakes, appearing like snow, floated around in the globe. The ultimate effect was to touch on our desire to have the picture-perfect Christmas—a celebration of Jesus’ birth within the context of a snow storm.

A true snow event is peaceful. As a child I remember how quiet it got as the snow began to pile up. The little white crystals had a muffling effect, shutting out most noise. As it effected driving even the sound of passing traffic was minimalized.

The advent of snow combined with the birth of the baby Jesus naturally reinforced the idea of peace. As the angels shouted in the heavens to the shepherds:

“Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace, goodwill among men.”

While Christmas is marketed by both the church and business as a combination birth of Jesus and winter festival, Luke had a different image of the baby Jesus. The babe, born in a manger and wrapped in swaddling cloth, was erupting on the scene to turn the world upside down.

Mary's understanding of Jesus is starkly articulated in a beautiful, yet poignant hymn known as the Magnificat. The Magnificat, which is named from Mary's opening words, "My soul magnifies..." is a song that announces Jesus' mission in the world. As Mary sings, Jesus is the one whose strength is found in the "scattering the proud in the imagination of their hearts", who "brings down the powerful from their thrones", who sends the "rich away empty" as well as "lifting up the lowly and filling the hungry".

Mary's song foretells the future. Yes, the birth of the baby Jesus evokes images of peace. And yet, that image is the calm before the storm. For thirty years, Jesus remains off the radar, working and living as a carpenter's son. And then Jesus explodes on the world's scene. The Lord's message concerning the erupting of God's kingdom of earth shatters the calm. The rich and powerful feel the Lord's word's threatening their lifestyle. The reaction is cold, calculated and violent.

And yet, for the poor, powerless and sinner, Jesus' advent brings peace. The words of God's kingdom exploding upon the scene give hope to the hopeless. The people who were reduced to objects of pity and derision by the powerful are precious in the sight of the Lord. The sinner, who took ownership of their thoughts and actions, saw in Jesus' words a God whose is far more merciful than the predominate culture's attitude. The culture has a difficult time in forgetting or forgiving. Thank God, Jesus articulates the good news that God is full of mercy for those who accept his invitation to renew their relationship with the Lord.

For the poor, powerless and sinner, the birth of Jesus ushers the invitation of a peace that transcends our conceptions. Its' like the snow globe with the manger scene. Jesus' birth ushers in an interior disposition of silence. It silence whereby we can contemplate God's love touching and transforming our soul. ~ Pastor Bart

The Chancel Choir will perform a Christmas Cantata on Sunday, December 17th, at a special 10:30 a.m. worship service.

Following the service, there will be a luncheon held in the Social Hall. All are invited.

Sides and desserts are welcome. Joan Carrow will be providing hot rolls and Walta Pruitt will arrange for the "Methodist Bird of Choice" - chicken. Please call Walta at 787-1842 or email her at chesie1@verizon.net with offers of assistance. Thank you! Hope to see you there!

On Christmas Eve, Sunday, December 24th, there will be worship services at 8:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. and also a lessons & hymns worship service at 7 p.m.

Council of Bishops

The United Methodist Church

Finding our Way in a Time of Uncertainty and Opportunity

November 10, 2017

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Jesus Christ,

Ephesians 4:1-2 admonishes us "to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace."

All of us are witnesses to increased animosity and growing conflict over political, religious and justice issues in many places in our world in word and deed. We believe this serves to threaten our safety and security. In antagonistic discussions about our faithful witness in the world, we may encounter verbal abuse, disruptive behavior, harassing emails, letters and phone messages, and confrontations.

As Bishops of your United Methodist Church, we serve a Church which is diverse in its theological understanding of Scripture and Christ's call in our lives. Conflict and differing opinions, a natural part of the human and faith experience, come in a variety of forms. We are called to address our differences with authenticity and respectful conversations which enrich our understanding of God and of one another.

In recent months, we have experienced these negative behaviors escalating into more aggressive, and violent expressions of hate, prejudice, and anger directed against others. We are hearing of and observing angry words now escalating to actions that are resulting in fear, anxiety, loss of security, and even physical harm. These actions are repugnant to us as your bishops.

We renew our covenant to one another to lead as a council and in our respective residential areas in ways that reflect our commitment to do no harm, do good, and stay in love with God. We renew this covenant within the Council of Bishops to engage in holy conversation and Christ-like behavior especially when we do not agree with one another. We call upon all United Methodists, even in the midst of disagreement and uncertainty about our future as a church, to do the same, and to love each other as Christ loved us (John 12:34).

In Christ's shalom,

Bishop Bruce R. Ough, President
The Council of Bishops

What would you do???

Below is a list of our collections each month towards our general expenses. As you can see each month we have fallen short on needed income. If this was your household monthly budget/income, what would you do? These are the questions your Finance Committee and Church Council has to look at. We have a lot of good programs and ministries that occur at our church. Please prayerfully consider what you give weekly to Market Street so that we can continue serving you and the community without having to make some serious decisions.

ONANCOCK CALENDAR CELEBRATES 30TH EDITION

The Onancock Calendar which is distributed by The United Methodist Women of Market Street United Methodist Church, is distributing the 30th Edition of their desk calendar. The calendar consists of pen and ink drawings of various landmarks in the Onancock community. The 2018 Edition includes Ker Place (built in 1799), Historic Onancock School, Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, United States Post Office, Onancock Volunteer Fire Department, Market Street United Methodist Church, Janet's Café (General Store), Gazebo in The Town Square, Harbormaster House at The Wharf, Naomi Makemie Presbyterian Church, Robert Lee Custis Memorial Garden Historic Cokesbury Church, and Old North Street Lamp Post with Carolers.

The first edition of the calendar consisted of artwork by Pat Haggoy and Katherine Wescott. The most recent artist is Marie Cataffo. Calligraphy has been done by Jill Parks these thirty years and carpentry was first done by Gerald Davis, and is currently furnished by Bill Ambrose. Printing was first done by Eastern Shore Printers and now is handled by Waterford Printing.

Calendars are for sale the beginning of November and may be obtained through the Church Office (787-4873) and June Evans (787-1114) and Mary Lou Podelco (787-2984). The photograph illustrates what a handy little calendar this is. It is a wonderful stocking stuffer, hostess gift, or friendship gift. The complete calendar is $6.00 and refills are $4.00. After purchasing the first complete calendar, refills are available each year thereafter. Proceeds from the sale are used in mission work of the church. ~ Mary Lou Podelco

“A Picture is a Poem Without Words” ~ Horace

We are grateful to June Evans for donating her entire 30 year collection of Onancock Calendars to be archived in The Methodist Room. June and Jerry Evans also kindly donated the protective coverings for the calendars. Please stop in and take a look. All of the covers are removable and the calendars are accessible for a closer study. June and Mary Lou Podelco are working on a short history to add to the collection.

On Veteran's Day, Scott Carpenter received the new heart we have all been praying for. He is doing well. Please continue your prayers for the donor's family, Scott Carpenter and family, and share a prayer of Thanksgiving with us all. Thank you.

Joan Carrow and Terrific Tuesday Dinners will take a break on December 26th and January 2nd. Those delicious Tuesday Dinners will return on January 9th!

Dear Market Street UMC Family and Pastor Bert,
 So many thanks for all your support these past couple months. We appreciate all the love, prayers, and outpouring of hope for our family from yours. Colleen will forever live within us and will always be there as well.

A New Idea!
 Angel Tree in Memory of Loved Ones who have Departed.

There will be a Christmas tree in the Assembly Room on which you may place small angels ornaments, white or gold. A signing book will be available to record who the angel is in memory of. Please place one angel for each person you would like remembered and sign the book.

Take a look back at the year with me, if you will. On the right are some of the many ways this church has reached out to those in the community this past year. Through fundraising, use of church space, volunteering time and effort, you have all given so much of yourselves to those near and far, and to each other. Thank you for your kindness.

My wish for the New Year is that we can continue all these good works and that our hearts receive back all that we give and share.

It is an honor to be part of this busy church community. Merry Christmas with Love ~ Pat McArdle
